

What festival?

Beth Ann Collier, 31, didn't seem to be too interested in the church sing-along and Adelphi Band concert which opened the Laurelville Firemen's Old Time Festival Tuesday, but quite a few people apparently were since one spokesman said there was a "good crowd" at the event. Beth is the daughter of Mrs. Janice Collier, Laurelville. Some 47 entrants will compete in the Little King and Queen contest, to begin at 7:30 tonight. A country and western music show with Clyde Fausnaugh and the Hard Times will follow the contest.

WAS tired cal se vestig times cash compl ey to fendat Antt vided schem fendat which pper t the fu then f lawyer In z the bu stuffe has booth furtiv from cigard ey wa Ulaa mone Mrs. e o n spirat a pla Ulaa paym He a tween He middi to H Bittm victed Lady

In m F

By J news Ne lume "to r portis Ohio new recor Show

Clipped By:

mathew5554
Thu, Mar 21, 2019