Fifty youngsters from all parts of the Laurelville fire district competed in the contest.

Laurelville Firemen's Festival Opens

Kimberly Hinton, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Hinton, Laurelville, was named Little Miss Volunteer Fireman, and Maria LeMaster, age six, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oville LeMaster, Laurelville Rt. 2, was named Junior Miss Volunteer Fireman before an estimated 600 people last night at the Laurelville Firemen's Old-Time Festival.

Brent Swackhamer, age four, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Swackhamer, Laurelville, was chosen Little Mister Volunteer Fireman, and Travis Barnes, age six, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnes, Rockbridge Rt. 2, was named Mister Volunteer Fireman.

Little Miss and Mister Volunteer attendants were Dana Riddle, age five, daughter of Mrs. JoeEllen Riddle, Laurelville Rt. 2, and Rodney Hart, age five, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rollic Hart, Laurelville Rt. 2.

Junior Miss and Mister Volunteer Firemen were Kitty Renee Barton, age seven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barton, Laurelville, and Bobby Cramblit, age six, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cramblit, Laurelville.

The Little Miss Volunteer Fireman contest was open to youngsters ages 3-5 living in the Laurelville fire district, while the Junior Miss contest was open to those 6-8 years of age. Judges for the contest were Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Radcliff and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roach. Radcliff is the sheriff of Pickaway County and Roach is a Logan Daily News reporter. The Rev. Lynn Summers, pastor of the Laurelville Church of God and also fire chief, was the master of ceremonies. A total of 50 youngsters from throughout the Laurelville fire district participated in the Little Miss and Junior Miss contests. Following the contests, a gospel sing-along was held on the stage with area church groups taking part. Concessions, games and carnival rides also were offered.

Highlighting the concessions were booths of the volunteer firemen, selling fish sandwiches, and area churches, which offered home-baked goods.

Tonight's big event will be the Miss Volunteer Fireman contest which will begin at 8 p.m., followed by the Adelfight Band Concert at 9:30 p.m. Nineteen high school beauties will be vying for the Miss Volunteer Fireman title.

Sponsors of the measure, led by Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., claimed enough votes to send the bill to the Senate and to override a veto if it should be forthcoming. "This goes beyond politics," said Patman, chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee which approved the bill by vote of 19 to 4. The bill would authorize the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development to make up to
