Queen pageant opens Greenfield festival

GREENFIELD— The Greene Countrie Towne Festival opens in Greenfield tonight with a queen pageant at the McClain High School gymnasium.

After a performance by the Greenfield Community Orchestra, 17 girls will try for the title of Miss Greene Countrie Towne. David Brizius will be in charge of the ceremonies.

An added attraction to this year's festival will be the opening of the Johnny Paycheck museum in the basement of Paul Angel's home, 1037 McClain Ave., Greenfield.

Angel has collected memorabilia of Paycheck's career since Paycheck was Donny Lytle, a young Greenfield boy who wanted to play guitar and sing.

Paycheck became the featured singer in Angel's Club 28 tavern at age 16. Angel made the first recording of Paycheck's music on a borrowed tape recorder in 1956. The tape will be on display Sunday along with handwritten lyrics of the first song written by Paycheck.

Angel will open his extensive collection on the life of Paycheck from 9 a.m. - 6 p.m. Sunday.
