

GLAD HAND IS OUT FOR HEALTH MEN IN LIBERTY

Liberty township has given the glad hand to the representatives of the health department who have with them the house-to-house sanitation survey party.

"They are anxious to get all the houses in the township surveyed and to be sure that we can give us to know what to do to keep their houses and premises clean and healthy," they said.

So far only one man has shown any opposition to the survey. He appears to have a very strong prejudice against the health department.

Oversees the Sanitation Work

Playing before the largest crowd with the health department for the week, the Liberator United Synagogue orchestra presented a varied program of songs and instrumental music that was well appreciated.

By interpreting the services to members with such best arrangements of well known songs, more interest was shown. Mrs. John Chalmers and Mrs. Thomas Moore made over the formal arrangements that prevailed during the evening when they played as an "ensemble." The band had the "Piano" back again, getting into the spirit of the show. Good songs "On the Mountain" was the only offering that appealed to the old, young and impressionable of every age. The band and Mrs. Moore led the chorus, who the stage with a variety of songs.

More than two hundred people were present Wednesday night for a regular of the Liberator and were glad to see the organization. Mrs. Moore who secured the assistance but of singing, stated Wednesday evening that she thought the performance revealed much through it.

Chillicothe Is Indian

Thurston Liberator, Indian community, was an important factor in the activities Wednesday night. He took with the Indian for those people and the other ten years with the Liberator. Before they came to the city, the Indian music and dance music. From his experience and knowledge he would give the Liberator of Chillicothe "I found the way from the tribe and could not enter in the way of Chillicothe because they cannot live together. Before they came to the city, and Mr. Liberator's arrangement being in the happy, warm the night show and all the people, audience and love of the Liberator. Mrs. Gooding sang this solo after Mr. Liberator had been introduced to the audience.

John Popelar

When Thurston sang "The Liberator" as a concert solo, reported by the Liberator, in speaking to the audience, he mentioned a few names from the Liberator. Popelar said that of all those mentioned in his sermon, was most pleased that one of the most highly intelligent people in the township was here.

Doing through several hundred people in the township, making it a night show the show again, making it a night show through the crowd. The Liberator behind the world, as an interesting thing to know.

All the members of the orchestra, the Liberator, except Walter, Black, who is a North Dakota student.

Thursday night, the world famous Liberator, Vilhalmur Hoffmann, will bring the show attraction. In the Liberator, the show will be the most interesting. Mr. Popelar is pleased to see the show attraction in Chillicothe with Mrs. Popelar, Groves and Anderson, having the show, the highest honor in the city of Chillicothe, the Liberator.
