Laurelville Centennial Gets Under Way Tonight

The five-day Laurelville centennial celebration gets under way tonight with a sing-along featuring area church choirs.

The Rev. Lynn Summers will deliver the invocation at 8 p.m. to start the program and the sing-along will follow immediately.

Other events for the week include the children's division of the beauty contest to be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. A concert by the Adelphi band will follow.

The Miss Volunteer Fireman beauty contest is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Thursday. A pie-eating contest will follow, and the Ross County Jamboree will provide music at 9:30.

Friday's events include Flippo the Clown at 8 p.m. and country and western music at 9 p.m.

Events are scheduled for all day Saturday, beginning with a pony pull at 1 p.m. There also will be a bicycle parade at 2:30, country and western music at 3:30, parade at 6:30, concert by the Adelphi band at 7:30, beard judging at 8 and square dancing at 9.

It was announced today that a covered wagon has been added to the antique display.

Nolan Shows will provide rides during the festival. Youngsters may also ride on one of the village fire trucks.
