The 31st annual Lancaster Festival, central Ohio's summer salute to the arts, launches Thursday, July 23, featuring 10 days of concerts, musicals, family activities, an art walk and more.

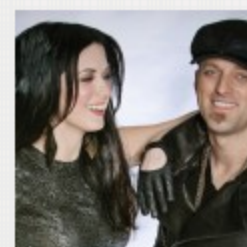

Here are some highlights of this year's festival:

Opening Night Concert with the Lancaster Festival Orchestra (July 23, St. Mary Church, 8 p.m.)

Made up of professional musicians from around the United States and the world, this ensemble is a fixture of the festival. Under the leadership of Maestro Gary Sheldon, the Lancaster Festival Orchestra performs pops and classical repertoire at a world-class level.
