Laurelville Centennial Draws 'Good' Opening Night Crowd

A "good" crowd attended the opening night festivities of the Laurelville centennial celebration Tuesday.

Although the celebration did not officially get underway until 8 p.m., many visitors toured the antique display throughout the day.

Opening day activities included a sing-along with area church choirs and the audience participating.

The Little Miss and Mr. contest and the Junior Miss and Mr. contests will highlight activities at 7:30 tonight.

As of Tuesday, 24 contestants had entered the Little Miss and Mr. contest, which includes youngsters ages 3-5. Twenty-one had entered the Junior Miss and Mr. contest for ages 6-8.

Another attraction will be a concert by the Adelphi band.

Twelve girls in grades 9-12 are entered in the Miss Volunteer Fireman beauty contest to be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

They are:

Christy Brown, daughter of Mrs. Esther Brown, Laurelville Rt. 2; Becky Huber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Huber, Laurelville; Tonya Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Johnson, South Bloomingville.

Teresa Butts, daughter of Mrs. Mary Lou Lehman, Laurelville; Cindy DeLong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel DeLong, Laurelville Rt. 2; Ginger Short, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Short, Laurelville Rt. 1.

Debbie Nungester, daughter of Mrs. Barbara Knece, South Bloomingville Rt. 1; Diane and June Elkins, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Elkins, Laurelville.

Holly Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Spencer, Laurelville; Lynn Hankison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hankison, Logan Rt. 2; Melody Link, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Link, South Bloomingville Rt. 1.

Contestants for the beauty contest were chosen last spring by students who will be in grades 9-12 this coming year — three from each grade.
