

r ukuda, who said it was due chiefly to

Laurelville Festival Starts Today

The Firemen's Old Time Festival opens today on the streets in Laurelville and runs through Saturday. A fish fry starts at 5 p.m. and carnival rides and the midway open at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday.

On Saturday the fish fry will start at noon and the carnival rides and midway will open at 1 p.m. with a special all rides for one price until 4 p.m.

Nightly activities also include bingo, antique fire truck rides, and free entertainment on stage along with a bake sale by the area churches.

Entertainment each night on the main street stage is scheduled. On Tuesday at 8 p.m. there will be a gospel concert with the Gospel Street Singers.

Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Little Miss and Mister Old Time Festival Contest will be held. At 9 p.m. there will be country music with Dewy Ringhiser, the Country Beaver. Thursday at 7:30 p.m. Miss Old Time Festival contest will be held. At 9:30 p.m. a rock concert and dancing featuring the Zodiac is planned.

Friday at 7:30 p.m. Laurelville marching majorettes will perform followed by country music by Dewy Ringhiser.

Saturday there will be a parade at 6 p.m., concert by the Adelphi Community Band at 7 p.m., country music by the Justice Family at 8 p.m., cake auction at 9 p.m. and then more music and square dancing until midnight.

University

Show article text (OCR)