contests begin at 5 p.m. with another landing by the Falling Angels at 6 p.m. and the 1977 Little Queens and Firemen's Parade.

The 1977 Little Miss Moonshine and her court will be crowned at 6:30 p.m., followed by the feature attraction — the Bob Gallion and Patti Powell show. They are stars of the WWVA "Jamboree" and Hickory Records performers.

A street dance to the music of Gene Mathias and the Justice Family at 8 p.m. will be followed by the second show of Bob Gallion and Patti Powell at 9:30 p.m. The evening will be concluded with a street dance to the music of Gene Mathias and the Justice Family from 10:30 p.m. to midnight.

Sunday is Old-Fashioned Day and Clarence Cordial Day, beginning at noon with a costume and beard contest followed by a sing-a-long at 12:30 p.m.

At 2 p.m., the Gospel Echoes will provide 1½ hours of gospel music, followed at 3:30 p.m. by Marko the Magician and Tarbaby the Clown.

Kenny Yahn and the Country Knights will provide music until 6:30 p.m., when an old-fashioned fiddlers contest takes place. A street dance and show, to the music of Froggy and the Greenhorns, takes place from 8 p.m. to midnight.

Monday is Parade Day and Tom Boyle Day, beginning at noon with baton corps performing, followed by Bindy music at 1 p.m. and at 1:45 by the presentation of the visiting Ohio Festival Queens.

Music by Bindy continues until 3 p.m., when the 1977 Moonshine Festival Grand Parade moves east on Main St. to Clark, then north on Clark to the elementary school grounds. More than 70 units will participate.

A concert by the Adelphi Community Band is set for 4:15 p.m., followed by a Corvette show at 4:30 p.m. Presentation of awards and drawings will be held at 5 p.m., with part II of the Talent Show set for 5:15 p.m.

The evening's entertainment will be a rock street dance to the music of Rated X. The festival concludes at 10 p.m.

In addition to all the free entertainment, Johnson amusements on the midway feature 11 rides, all family-priced at 35 cents each.

The Ohio Department of Liquor Control will have its still display, and there will be window displays, moonshine pie, moonshine candy and moonshine sno-cones, making the festival one the entire family can enjoy.

Persons wanting information on camping or lodging may call 614-394-2917 or write the New Straitsville Betterment Association, New Straitsville 43766.
