Field Day Set For Thursday At Clarksburg

Forty-second Clarksburg Field Day will be held Thursday, Aug. 2, in Hurst's Grove, one-fourth mile East of Clarksburg on Route 138. This event is sponsored annually by the Clarksburg Methodist Church.

Many attractions are planned for all day and evening. The Adelphi Band will furnish music. There will be trap shooting all day, a tractor pulling contest, horse pulling exhibition, pony rides and stunts for boys and girls.

Highlights of the evening entertainment will be a program by television stars Helen Harris and Billy Scott, a comedy magic act, Roxanne, a child star entertainer from Columbus and the Vets Male Quartet from Washington C. H.

Lunch will be served during the day at refreshments stands and fish and chicken dinner will be served in the evening. Serving will begin at 4:30 p. m.

Commercial exhibits are invited with free space offered.
