Kingston News

The fish-fry and chicken dinner, an annual event held since 1921 by the Hallsville United Methodist Church will be on July 30 this year with serving to begin at noon. For those who would like to look back, the Rev. and Mrs. Clyde A. Walters and children, Elizabeth and Richard lived in the parsonage. The Rev. Walters will soon observe his 91st birthday. He is retired and makes his home in Portsmouth near one of his children. The Adelphi Band will play during the afternoon.
