Republicans Slate Dinner For Aug. 4

LANCASTER — Edward E. Brookover II of Columbus, candidate for State Representative, 90th District, will be master of ceremonies at the 11th annual Republican fish fry Saturday, Aug. 4.

Serving time is 5 to 7 p.m. at Fairfield County Fairgrounds, Lancaster, and will be followed by entertainment including Adelphi Band, according to Jay Dupler, chairman of the Fairfield County Republican Executive Committee.

U.S. Rep. Philip M. Crane, Republican candidate for president, will be featured speaker.

Other guests will include U.S. Rep. Clarence E. Miller, 10th District; Martha Moore, state vice chairman and national committee woman and Sam Speck and John R. Kasich, state senators.

A native of Millersport, Brookover is a graduate of Otterbein College with a bachelor of arts degree in political science. He is attending night sessions at Capital University School of Law, and is employed as an assistant liaison officer for the Ohio Department of Transportation.

Tickets are available for children and adults from members of Republican clubs throughout Fairfield County and at Lancaster Motors and Lancaster Book and Office Supply, both in Lancaster and Pickerington Sporting Goods Store in Pickerington.
