Laurelville festival winds up Saturday

LAURELVILLE — The Old Time Fireman's Festival in Laurelville runs through Saturday night.

Teresa Cleavinger was chosen queen of the festival in a contest Thursday evening. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Olive, Laurelville.

Her attendants are Darlene Karr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Karr, South Perry, and Beth Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smith, Laurelville.

Jody Berard, 3, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. David Berard, was chosen Little Miss Festival, with Angel Schwalbaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Schwalbaugh, as her attendant.

Corby Jarvis, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Jarvis, was chosen Little Mister with Jeremy Parker, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Parker, as his attendant.

Darcy Van Curen, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Danny Van Curen, is the Junior Miss with Tammy Reed, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reed as her attendant.

Andy Hopkins, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garry Hopkins, is Mister Festival with Marty Karshner, 6, son of Linda and Tom Karshner as his attendant.

A country store is open at the festival for local craftsmen to sell their wares. The fire department is holding a fish fry daily for funds to improve the department.

The Kustoms will be playing country music tonight at 8 for square dancing with a group of children square dancers, the Mini Steppers, participating. The Laurelville Marching Majorettes will be performing at 9 p.m.

The festival opens at noon on Saturday with a performance by the Senior Citizens Kitchen Band scheduled for 4 p.m.

The grand parade will be held at 6 p.m. and the Adelphi Band will perform at 7 p.m.

At 8 p.m. the Justice Family will perform for square dancing and the festival will close after the 9 p.m. cake auction and bike raffle.
