

moved
a con-
over the highly tems to
d to the solution
le and
a letter
udy the
ning and
ability to ment of n a 200-
al warn
stem so
fall into ia.

Junior royalty picked at Laurelville

LAURELVILLE— A Little Miss and Mr. and Junior Miss and Mr. and their alternates were chosen Wednesday evening during the Laurelville Firemen's Old Time Festival.

Tonight, the younger sets of festival royalty will be on stage for the Miss Old Time Festival program, when a festival queen will be chosen from a field of 38 contestants. The event starts at 7:30 p.m.

Chosen Little Miss during the Wednesday program was Mindy Ream, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ream, Laurelville. Her attendant is Lee Ann Wing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Wing, Laurelville.

The Little Mr. is Chris Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Shaw, Route 2, Laurelville, and his attendant is Andy Hopkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hopkins, Route 1, Laurelville.

Holly Whitcraft was chosen Junior Miss. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Whitcraft, Laurelville. Her attendant is Tabatha McNichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry McNichols, Laurelville.

The Junior Mr. is Phillip Rife, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Rife, Laurelville, and his attendant is Jamie Newman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Newman, Laurelville.

A crowd estimated at 2,500 participated in Wednesday evening festival activities, which also included a country music program by the "Country Knights."

Tonight's program, in addition to the queen contest, will feature a rock concert by "Grooves Thang." Bingo, a fish fry and carnival rides are featured nightly at the festival.

Friday activities will include a 6-8 p.m. Bicentennial Community Band concert, 8-9 p.m. country music program by the "Customs" and square dancing demonstration by the Mini-Steppers, and a 9 p.m. stage performance by the Laurelville Marching Majorettes.

Saturday, the final day of the festival, will open with a noon firemen's water battle at the ballfield, 1-4 p.m. carnival matinee, 3 p.m. "Country Knights" performance, 6 p.m. parade with old fashioned dress contest, 7 p.m. Adelphi Band concert, 8 p.m. Justice Family Band performance and square dance, 9 p.m. cake auction and 9:30 p.m. Justice Family Band and more square dancing.

Fair events participants

HOPETON
Davis

Clipped By:

mathew5554

Thu, Mar 21, 2019