

65th Field Day plans set for Clarksburg

CLARKSBURG — The 65th annual Clarksburg Field Day, barring tornadoes or earthquakes, is just two days away.

Thursday's day-long celebration, sponsored by the Clarksburg United Methodist Church, should have something for everyone.

Trapshooting, horseshoe pitching and a flea market are all-day events with refreshments served throughout the day.

Music will be supplied by the Adelphi Band, Adena High School Band, the Shiloh Gospelaires, Walker's Junction Bluegrass and the Uhrig Brothers Quartet.

Flea market booth space can be rented at $1 per frontage foot with a depth of 15 feet.

There will be fish and chicken dinners along with other sandwiches and refreshments.

Here is a Field Day schedule:

1 p.m. — Adelphi Band concert

2 — Children's games

2:30 — Introduction of guests

3 — Adena Band concert

4 — Children's games, greased pole climb

4:30 — Chicken & fish dinners begin

5 — Adelphi Band concert

6 — Shiloh Gospelaires

7 — Walker's Junction Bluegrass

8:30 to 10:30 p.m. — Uhrig Brothers' Quartet.
