

Weekend offers variety

By JILL ZEGER

Gazette Staff Writer

Music is in the air and Chinese will be the fare as we edge into the weekend.

Bandstand concert

The Great Seal of Ohio Band will re-create the American era of the 1890s to the 1930s with a free concert at the Yoctangee Park bandstand Sunday at 3 p.m.

The band, which averages about 50 volunteer players, has performed since 1974 with concerts locally and at AmeriFlora. Members range in ages from their early teens to their late 70s.

Lunch outside

On Friday, the Diamond Head restaurant at 33 N. Paint will have lunches for sale 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday at Publick Square on West Main Street.

More information is available by calling Chillicothe Community Affairs at 775-4703.

Art show

At the Pump House Art Gallery, "Visions and Images," the work of the Photographic Arts Group, will open at the gallery in Yoctangee Park on Tuesday.

This informal association of professional and amateur photographers from Southern Ohio will exhibit pieces through Aug. 15. Hours are 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday and 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday. Call 772-5783.

Fireman's festival

The Fireman's Old Time Festival continues through Saturday on Laurelville's Main Street. A fish fry, midway and arts and crafts are among the offerings.

More information is available by calling 332-6033.

A few music highlights are listed below:

- Diamond Brothers — 9 p.m. tonight
- Rainbow Canyon — 8 p.m. Friday
- Adelphi Band — 4:30 p.m. Saturday

Survivor headlines the Sunday concert at Scioto Valley Concert Park in Jasper with the group Molly Hatchet.
