Clarksburg's Annual Field Day Thursday

Plans are nearing completion for the 47th annual Clarksburg Field Day to be held Thursday, Aug. 2, under sponsorship of the Methodist Church.

There will be large agricultural machinery and commercial exhibits and all day there will be pony rides, trapshooting and horseshoe pitching.

The formal program of the afternoon will include a band concert by the Adelphi Band; Jake Noble, cartoonist and soloist; sky diving from 12,500 feet, with smoke-falling nearly two miles before parachutes are opened; Lucky Carson, the "Singing Ranger" and his trained pony, Chief, who came from Hollywood. "Lucky," known as the Silver King of Movie Fame, played in the MGM picture "No Leave, No Love" with Van Johnson, and with Clark Gable in "Adventure".

Of much interest in the late afternoon will be the Civil War sham battle and cannonade by Company M, under direction of the Clarksburg physician, Dr. Byron Stinson. The Rev. Herman Secoy will be the speaker on the afternoon program and will discuss "Europe As We Saw It". He was a member of the Ohio Conference Ministers' Choir touring Europe.

There will be contests for boys and girls, climaxed by the climbing of a greased pole.

At night, the cartoonist will reappear, accompanied by a group of musicians. There will be another band concert, and Lucky Carson and Chief will perform again.

The speaker of the evening will be the state director of agriculture, Robert H. Terhune. He returned home in June after studying agriculture in communist countries with a group of Ohio farmers. He will use as his subject, "Fourteen Days Behind the Iron Curtain".

Fish lunches at noon, fish and chicken dinners in the evening, and a busy refreshment stand will help make this homecoming with old friends an enjoyable day.

Dr. Stinson and Guy Zurmehly are co-chairmen for the Field Day.
