Clarksburg plans 64th Field Day

CLARKSBURG — It will be homecoming time again for residents and former residents of the Clarksburg area at the 64th Clarksburg Field Day Thursday.

The day-long event will be held on the Field Day grounds off Ohio 138 just east of the village and is sponsored by the United Methodist Church.

Featured evening entertainment will be the Gospel Street Singers from Chillicothe with performances by Jerry Salley and The Country Ramblers and Lonnie Caplinger, a magician, scheduled for both afternoon and evening.

The Adelphi Band will make its 35th appearance at the Field Day with afternoon and evening performances. The Adena High School Band will also play during the afternoon.

A flea market will be open all day and trap shooting, horseshoe pitching and children's games will be held all afternoon.

Byron Smith and Terry Cremeans, Frankfort, will play banjo in the afternoon and a barbershop quartet from Chillicothe will perform in the evening.

Tom Sowers and Mrs. James Martin are in charge of the flea market and Howard Martin is in charge of the Field Day Committee this year.

The fish and chicken dinner will be served from 4:30 p.m. on, with sandwiches available all day.
