Adelphi Band Second Oldest In the State

Adelphi claims to have the second oldest band in the state. An old photograph shows the band ready to leave for Chillicothe, to help celebrate the 100th anniversary of the birth of Gov. James E. Campbell in 1866. The band will make its appearance at the Clarkburg Field Day on Thursday.

Members of the band attending the Monday practice were: Charles Clark, Raymond Hodges, Gilbert, Arthur Hinton, Eugene Gilman Hinton Sr., Edward Bennett, Arthur Hinton, Eugene Gilman Hinton Sr., Edward Bennett, Fredrick Shaw, the band also has three majorettes—Mary Sue Clark, Nancy and Elizabeth Gilman. With a small community, recruiting has been a problem, as the younger people have diversified interests.

Practice at School

Practices in the early days were held at the Red Men's Hall and the Knights of Pythias Hall in Adelphi, while a Halliwell store was the gathering place for the musicians at other times. Now the practices are at the Adelphi school from March until the customary last appearance of the band at Halloween.

Mr. Hinton recalled that Frank Hickman of Lancaster was a former director of the band and he was followed by Charles Freese. The present director is Frederick Shaw, once a member of the University of Michigan's marching band and now a music teacher in the Pickaway County schools.

To Play at Clarkburg

The band has made frequent appearances at most civic events over the years.

Police Hold Alleged Counterfeiter

Chillicothe police are holding a 35-year-old machinist from Corbin and Louisville, Ky., and Tucson, Ariz., who is wanted in Toledo and Cincinnati on bad check charges.

The man, George A. Greer, was arrested Saturday afternoon on East Second Street by officers who were tipped that a "man in a suit" was carrying a large amount of cash.

After questioning Greer, officers found he had printing equipment for running off payroll checks for a Lathrop Co. general contractor of Toledo, and drawn on the State Bank of Toledo, plates for printing.
