Annual Clarksburg Field Day Event Scheduled Thursday

CLARKSBURG — The people of this community are now looking forward to Thursday and the annual Clarksburg Field Day.

Many attractions have been planned for the all-day event, beginning at 10 a.m. Three bands have been scheduled for concerts both afternoon and evening. One of them will be the Adelphi Band, which has played at Field Days for the last 25 years. The others are Senior Citizens Kitchen Band, of Chillicothe, and the Adena High School Band at Frankfort.

Bob Braun, the MC of Cincinnati's TV 50-50 Club, and Cliff Lash will present a program at 8 p.m. Linfield Ivy, a Frankfort rock 'n' roll group will come on at 10 p.m. following The Rangers, a Waverly country and western musical group.

Horseshoe pitching and trapshooting by adults and pony riding by the children will be going on all day. There will be commercial exhibits and plenty of free parking.

Fish and chicken dinners will be served, starting at 4:30 p.m. and sandwiches and soft drinks will be available all day.

The Field Day is sponsored by the Clarksburg United Methodist Church. Bennett Junk is the general chairman.
