Field Day concerts, games set

CLARKSBURG — It'll be a lazy day of trap-shooting and pitching horseshoes from dawn to dusk Thursday during the 69th annual Field Day in Clarksburg.

The old-fashioned activities are scheduled to begin about noon at the Field Day Grounds, one-quarter mile northeast of the village on Ohio 138.

Attractions range from musical groups to children's games. The schedule of events is as follows:

- 1 p.m. — Adelphi Band concert.
- 2 — Adena High School Band concert with twirlers.
- 3 — Children's games, including a greased pole climb.
- 4:30 — Fish and chicken dinners served.
- 5:15 — Adelphi Band Concert.
- 6:30 — Tad Free and his country band.
- 8 — Lonnie Caplinger, magician.
- 8:30 — Uhrig Brothers Gospel Team of Chillicothe.

The all-day event is sponsored by the Clarksburg United Methodist Church.
