The Ross County Fair officially opens Saturday featuring harness racing, the Adelphi Band concert and antique farm display judging, just to name a few. Saturday is just the beginning as the fair starts its nine-day run, ending on Saturday, Aug. 9 with a performance by country music star Aaron Tippin. For all you need to know about the fair, check Saturday's edition of the Chillicothe Gazette for a special 2003 Ross County Fair edition.
