

D—CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

Circleville Lass Named Queen Of a Ashville Affair

(Continued from Page One)

bourne won first prize in the float division of the annual celebration parade Tuesday, while Ashville Brownie Girl Scouts received second place and Ashville Cub Scouts ranked third.

* * *

ONE OF THE outstanding floats entered in the competition was a "Teddy Bear Picnic" float entered by Rosemary Fisher of Walnut Township. The float, winner of the "most unusual entry" category, consisted of a merry-go-round showing teddy bears at play.

Bill Fortner won first prize in the decorated automobile contest, while Citizen's Bank was second and Jack Foreman received third.

Chester Fortner of Ashville won first place in the decorated bicycle contest with a bike swan, while Miss Swoyer and Miss Roller received second with a combination entry. Gary Fortner was third.

Best horse and rider prize was awarded to Earl Reed of Ashville, with Roger Kinsell second and Clinton Teegardin third.

Jay Morrison received first prize in the miniature float division of the parade. Second place honors were won by Dianne Richards while third place was taken by The Dunlap Co. of Williamsport.

Jerry Owens of Ashville won the top award in the "best pet" competition with his bulldog. Jim and Dave Cooper of Ashville ranked second.

Best pony and cart contest was won by Jim Teegardin while Charles Brown ranked second.

Brown Implement Co. of Ashville received the industrial and commercial trophy in the annual parade.

Bands participating in the parade were Ashville high school band, Adelphi Community Band, All-Pickaway County school band, a novelty German band and the Circleville American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps.

Results of the western horse-show held following the parade, listed in one, two, three order, are:

Pony class (45-56 inches)—Sandra Nowacki, Columbus; Raymond VanWinkler, Leesburg; Shirley Jennings, Columbus.

Pleasure class—Esta Sticklely, St. Paris; Charles Garringer, Leesburg; Bud McNeal, Jeffersonville.

Palomino class — Emerson Brown, Ashville; Harold Reed, Ashville; Carl Nowacki, Columbus.

Scoop race—Charles Wood and Bob Foster, Groveport; Robert Foreman and Ronald Baker, Mt. Sterling; Bud McNeal.

Neck reining—Charles Wood; Harold Reed; Robert Sticklely, St. Paris.

Plain horse—Emerson Brown Pete Harris, Zanesville; Bud McNeal.

Pony class (45 inches and under)—Suzy Miller, Groveport; Roger Kinsell, Columbus.

Musical chairs—Bud McNeal, Robert Sticklely, Bob Foster.

Stock horse—Robert Sticklely, William Rush, Orient; Bob Foster.

Spotted horse—Mrs. Homer Robinson, London; Bob Foster; Lee Tracy, Orient.

Egg contest—Lee Tracy; Esta Sticklely; Bob Patrick, Ashville.

ENDS TONITE

The ville hospit
disord

He
ling,
Poling

On Mildre

Surv
and hi

Mrs. ville,

da an sons,

Clyde
Lloyd

Gary home

and t

Fur at 2

Evang
churc

Welch

Bur
mit c

tion o

Home

Fri

Thurs

Norm

30

For

Ko

(C

Jame

comm

ly be

TH

visior

Wing

move

Act

and a veiled

It

craft

Marit

was i annou

rine

rine

"in a

Obs

16-da

the s and

by th

Mr

Ashv

daug

at 5: