

Lancaster Eagle-Gazette, Saturday, July 6, 1991 Page 3

Program offers music to Pickerington residents

Senior center's summer series promises variety

Local residents who consider music and food an appealing combination should mark their calendars.

Pickerington Senior Center's Summer Music Series, which runs through August, promises visitors plenty of sweet tunes to which to listen and an assortment of delicious treats to eat.

An ice cream social is set for July 25. Jerry Weaver and the Goodtime Jazz Band will begin entertaining at 7:30 p.m. Doors open at 6 p.m.

On August 22, the Columbus Pops Band will play at the center beginning 7:30 p.m. A smorgasbord dinner will be served at $6 a plate for adults and $3 for children, age 10 and younger. Doors open at 6 p.m.

Concluding the series, is the center's Sept. 15 Welcome Home Troops celebration, to start at 2 p.m. The Adelphi Band of Adelphi, Ohio, will provide the music.

Series events are sponsored by the Pickerington Fairfield Federal Savings and Loan Association. All events are open to the public.

Expectant parents whose babies are due mid-September or October, who are interested in learning Lamaze, can register for the Lamaze Childbirth Association's upcoming series of childbirth education classes.

Kay Mathias

Kay Mathias covers the Pickerington area for the Eagle-Gazette

Classes begin June 30 and include early pregnancy, labor and birth, cesarean birth, refresher, VBAC, breastfeeding, adjustments and baby care.

Classes are taught at various Columbus locations. Preregistration is required of all participants. For more information, or to preregister, contact Pat Gerdeman at 476-1101.

James Sellers has been named Pickerington Area Chamber of Commerce leadership person of the month.

Sellers and his wife, Colleen, have been residents of Pickerington for 14 years. In 1978, the Sellers established a hardware and software service at their Huntington Hills home. The business has grown to a staff of 11. A new facility was built four years ago at Rustic and Stonecreek drives.

Sellers received a bachelor's of science degree and certificate of data processing at Franklin University. He is past president of Softwarehouse Users' Group All Regions (SUGAR).

For the rather elite crowd, an entire weekend of polo has been scheduled as a benefit event for the Leukemia Society of America, Central Ohio Chapter, July 20 and 21 at the stately Bryn Du field on Newark-Granville Road and Jones Road, one-mile east of the center of Granville.

Central Ohio personality and football hero Archie Griffin will make a special guest appearance on the field July 21. Festivities will include on-field activities such as raffles for prizes, games of skill and clowns. Concessions will be provided by Big Bear. Polo matches begin at 1 p.m.

Tickets are $5 per person or $10 per carload. For a complete schedule or more information, contact 224-PONY.

Clipped By:

mathew5554

Sun, Mar 24, 2019