Seen On Fifth Avenue

PICTURESQUE EVENING frocks continue to be shown by every smart house. The frocks are rich in appearance without a hint of ostentation, not an easy effect to secure. A lovely evening frock of black organza, which is stiffened chiffon, has the skirt a mass of white ruffles striped in two directions with lines of black embroidery. The ruffles are massed from either side of the skirt near the kneeline and curve round to form a full short train in back. A fichu of the same ruffles marks the shoulder line and the bodice.
