Dick Norton arrived in time for the 3rd session. Clifford left after the 2nd. It was an unusual festival. The band played about 20 min. 3 different times - 11:55, 1:00, and 2:30. The 3rd session was cut short because a storm threatened. Col. Bogey didn't fare too ~~so~~ well because Clifford was missing. A great feature of the festival - all the food and drinks were free. This included brats, Philly steak, pizza and fried potatoes. The band turnouts this year have been sparse and this one was no exception - just enough to get by. Some band members were on vacation and some had to work but we sure miss those who could come out and didn't.
