New Field Day Buildings

Plans for the Clarksburg Field Day, to be held Thursday Aug. 10 under auspices of the Methodist church, are nearing completion. Two permanent buildings are being erected on the Field Day grounds. They consist of a large 30x60 shelter where dinner will be served and a smaller building for the general stand. A group of men has been working diligently for several days in erecting the buildings. In addition to this, donations of money and material have been made. Swanee River Boys of station WLW will be featured on the evening program and Roy Battles WLW farm director, will speak in the afternoon. Adelphi band will furnish the music and Raymond Stevens, magician, will also appear on the evening program.

Mrs. Louetta Rice, Daytona Beach, Fla. and Mrs. Jessie Ridings, Washington D. C., were Tuesday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Peck and daughter, Virginia.
