Fair Skies Expected For Field Day

Clarksburg is anticipating fair weather and several thousand visitors for its Field Day, scheduled for Thursday.

Besides many reunions of old friends, the commercial exhibits, trapshooting, horseshoe pitching, stunts for boys and girls, and fish and chicken suppers at 4:30 p.m., the entertaining features of the program promise enjoyment for all.

The Adelphi Band will appear in the afternoon and evening, and the "Ranch Hands" in the afternoon with instrumental and vocal music. Stunts for boys and girls will be followed by sky-diving feats of three men from a height of 12,000 feet.

The evening program will feature a talk by Mrs. Jerrie Mock of Columbus, relating her experiences as first woman to fly alone around the world.

Other entertainment will include sleight-of-hand and larger illusions by William Bale; the appearance of the national lying champion, Walter Lewis, who will announce the winner of the Masons, Civil lying contest; and "Zeke and Bill" of WLW television, with songs and jokes.
