

While tight-lipped on any spe- about it.

51st Clarksburg Field Day Set

CLARKSBURG — Clarksburg's 51st annual Field Day and Homecoming will be held Thursday at the Methodist Grove on Route 138, northeast of here.

George Skinner, chairman of the event, says that horseshoe pitching and trap shooting will get under way at 10 a.m.

Also beginning at 10 a.m. will be the tractor pulling contest, directed by the state association, and many contests for boys and girls.

Highlights of the day's activities will be the evening program featuring the Tune Mates, entertainers from Ohio State University.

The Adena Band and Ranch Hands will also be on the program.

During the afternoon, the Adelphi Band will perform, beginning at 1:30.

There will be several commercial exhibits and lunch will be served at various refreshment stands. A fish and chicken dinner will be served beginning at 4:30 p.m.

A first aid station will be manned by the Ross County Chapter of the American Red Cross and ambulance service will be provided by Heiby's, Chillicothe.

The field day is sponsored each year by the Clarksburg Methodist Church.

North Fork Village Scene of Collision

Dennis W. Smith, 21, Cincinnati, was charged by the highway patrol with passing at an intersection following his collision with an auto driven by Mrs. Janice Fernandez, 26, Lancaster, Sunday evening at the entrance to North Fork Village on Route 50 west. Mrs. Fernandez, the patrol said, began a left turn and Smith pulled out to pass.

their of le land pital. suffic runwa city. Con said l tive l time press Mr. good better Com ever, can b ten th sons Burea posing prese Act airpor order for th const

N

A

PIK get the

Clipped By:

mathew5554
Wed, Mar 20, 2019