Ross County Fair To Open Tuesday

The 14th Ross county fair will be officially opened with flag-raising ceremonies conducted by 4-H club members at noon Tuesday, at the fairgrounds located on Rt. 104 just north of Chillicothe.

The Buckskin Valley High school band will provide the mid-way music that afternoon and evening. Tuesday will be 4-H and Youth Day.

Entertainment feature will be the Rocky Knob horse show at 8 p. m.

"Chillicothe Day" will be observed Wednesday, with the bands of Frankfort and Southeastern High schools sharing the concert spotlight. The Midwestern Hayride will be the evening's grandstand show at 8:30.

Harness racing will be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 2 p. m.

The "Dr. Franklin Illusion Show" will be Thursday night's grandstand attraction at 8:30, and the junior fair livestock sale will be held Friday at 8 p. m., followed by a wrestling show.

The Chillicothe High school band and the Adelphi Community Band will play during the afternoon and evening Thursday and the Paint Valley High school band and the Adelphi ensemble will play Friday.

Climaxing the fair program Saturday night will be the Joie Chitwood Thrill-O-Rama of automobile and motorcycle stunts.
