Showers

classifications, horse, sheep, swine, dairy and beef, competed Friday for Showman of Showmen. The rules were the winners had to show an animal from every classification except the class in which they won.

Winners were, junior division, John Roberts, a beef winner; intermediate division, Todd Britton, a lamb winner; and senior class, Scott Cook, a beef winner.

Tobacco spitters contest

A large crowd showed up at the bandstand Friday for the tobacco spitter contest.

Steve Ford, Route 4, Waverly, took first place with a spit of 21-feet, 10½-inches. Second place went to Jerry Leath, Route 4, Waverly, for a 19-foot, 10-inch spit. Michael Wiltshire, 98 Applewood Drive, won third place with his 16-foot, 10½-inch spit.

Friday entertainment

The grandstand was more than half-full for a motorcycle rodeo and thrill show Friday night. Entries in the rodeo were local bikers.

Major Young and Gospel Street, Chillicothe, were performing gospel music at the bandstand. The Paint Valley High School band and the Adelphi Community Band also performed at the bandstand during the day.
