Newspapers by ancestry
Chillicothe Gazette (Chillicothe, Ohio) · 13 Aug 1964, Thu · Page 1
Downloaded on Mar 20, 2019

Chillicothe Day Turnout At Fair Tops Last Year's

Estimated attendance at Chillicothe Day Wednesday at the Ross County Fair was greater than last year's, and the Fair Board expects another good crowd Thursday in dry, sunny weather for Youth Activities Day.

Added to Wednesday's crowd was a female Ayrshire calf, born shortly after midnight Tuesday to a cow owned by Nancy Hines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hines, Ashville, Route 1.

Mr. Hines, a member of the Pickaway County Board of Commissioners, said the cow would be shown at the Ayrshire Cattle Breeders District Show which began at 9 a.m. Thursday. This necessitated separation of the mother and calf.

Nancy was the 1963 Ohio State Fair Ayrshire Queen. The Hineses said the new mother was a reserve champion at the recent Pickaway County Fair.

The junior division of the 4-H Style Revue and Modeling Contest began at 12:30 p.m. Thursday and will run for most of the afternoon at the grandstand.

The senior divisions of the same events are the main grandstand attraction of the evening.

Harness racing is scheduled to begin at 4 p.m. with 33 horses entered in three races. Each race will consist of two heats.

Ronald Stacey, scheduled to make a parachute jump over the fairgrounds at 7 p.m., will not "hit the silk" as planned.

Winning 4-H demonstrations will be presented in the Junior Fair Building at 1 p.m. Friday.

The Clarksburg High School and Adelphi Community bands will be on hand to provide midway and grandstand concerts.

Mrs. Mildred Armstrong will give a chair recaning demonstration at 2 p.m.

Highlighting the evening will be the Junior Fair livestock sale at 7:30 at the judging arena.

Wednesday's Fair

According to Fair Board Treasurer J. Kenneth Rudell, 4,419 people paid admission to the fairgrounds Wednesday, an increase of 165 over last year's second-day paid of admissions totaling 4,254.

Ninety-three season tickets were used to gain admission to the grounds Wednesday, an increase of 41 over last year's 54 season tickets used.

William R. Jones, coordinator of the State Department of Agriculture, toured the fairgrounds with Fair Board President Ralph Ratcliff. Mr. Jones was on the grounds for four hours Wednesday afternoon and evening.

News Digest From AP Wires

NATIONAL

Many Republican leaders view Sen. Barry Goldwater's unity manifesto as a big stride toward cementing party solidarity.

Beautifully ferocious, Zsa Zsa Gabor storms Los Angeles City Hall, shouting: "I'm a Hungarian freedom fighter and I'm going to fight!" City bulldozers level her property, damaged in the disastrous 1961 Bel Air fire.

WASHINGTON

Senate leaders have worked out a compromise on a legislative reapportionment amendment. They hope it clears the way for passage today of the foreign aid authorization bill.

Sen. Barry Goldwater says President Johnson has shot down one campaign issue—the charge that Goldwater is trigger-happy.

INTERNATIONAL

Chances for peace on Cyprus seem so precarious that U.N. officials fear an insult shouted across no-man's land could shatter shaky truce.

West Berlin marks the third year of the Berlin wall by paying tribute to 105 persons killed trying to flee Communist East Germany.

Fair's Horse Show Reported Best Yet

Largest ever, would be the description of the third annual Ross County fair horse show, staged Wednesday evening at the grandstand. Entries totaled 114 an increase of 21 over last year's.

Mrs. Charles Black, show secretary, explained that due to the interest and showing last year, the number of classes were enlarged from 15 to 18. This included four classes for Ross County owners only — two of pleasure horse and two of 4-H saddle horse.

Other horses shown were entered in the three and five gaited horse and pony classes, the fine harness stake, model classes, Western parade horse and pony classes, walking horse and pleasure horse, both English and western competition. There were also English and Western horsemanship divisions.

Judging the English horses was Bill Gleason of Huntington, W. Va., and the Western horses, Lee Tracy of Mt. Sterling. The largest class which the judges had to rate was the second division of the Ross County owned 4-H Saddle horse competition with 30 horses.

The best model horse, best model pony, Ross County owned 4-H saddle horse and horsemanship classes received trophies for the first place and ribbons for the rest. The others earned purses of $12 for the first place, $10 for second; $8 for third; $ for fourth; $4 for fifth; and $2 for sixth.

Assisting in the show were Cecil H. Roush, manager; Charles Williamson, announcer; Hugh Jennings, ringmaster; Joe Hoyt and Dick Trimpi, paddock stewards; Mrs. Cecil Roush, Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. O. O Burt, assistant secretaries.

First Place Winners Listed

First place winners in the 18 classes were: best model pony —Snappin' Sassy, ridden and owned by Virgil Williams, Columbus, first; best model horse — Paris Lady, ridden by Dr. John Martin, owned by Tommy Ebenhack, Circleville; Ross County owned pleasure horse — Poco Baya, ridden and owned by LeAnna Chester, Kingston; Three gaited pony, 58 inches and under — Cherry Bomb, ridden by Judy Ankrom, owned by Ankrom Stables, Circleville; Ross County Owned Pleasure Horse — Tadpole, ridden and owned by Steve Dreher, Baintridge; Fine harness stake — Stabeart's Prophet, driven and owned by M. B. Richardson, Parkersburg, W. Va.;

Ross County owned 4-H saddle horse — Misty, ridden and owned by Miss Nancy Miller, Chillicothe; Western Parade Horse — Hit Parade, ridden by Ron Van Bibber, owned by Ralph G. Sharer, Parkersburg, W. Va.; Ross County owned 4-H saddle horse — Charlie, ridden and owned by Donn Overly, Chillicothe; Three gaited stake — Trojan Pride, ridden by Peg Bathelemy, owned by Dream Valley Stables, Miamisburg;

Western pony — Dainty's Sidelight, ridden and owned by Terary Williams, Columbus; Horsemanship — Montgomery's Lady, ridden and owned by Susan E. Bennett, Circleville; Walking horse stake — Goldie Wilson, ridden by Mose Oppenheimer, owned by Earnhart Stables, Logan; Horsemanship — Cheyenne, ridden and owned by Doug Temple, Londonderry;

Pleasure Horse open, English — Valiant Man, ridden by Marilyn Anders, owned by Dr. J. A. McCoy, Washington C. H.; Western parade pony — Dainty's Delight, ridden and owned by Terry Williams, Columbus; Pleasure horse, open, Western — My Luck Tu, ridden by Junior Shelpman, owned by Guy Allison, Columbus; five gaited stake — Scott Avie, ridden by Charles Bradshaw, owned by Dr. J. A. McCoy, Washington C. H.

(Photos on Page 15)

Theatre Owner Answered

Phone Company No 'Fre

Clipped By:

mathew5554
Wed, Mar 20, 2019

Copyright © 2019 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.

Powered by Newspapers.com