

ed from the mortar fire. Vietnamese elements were classes 1
mas va
Jan. 3, 2
third gr
Jan. 1
fourth f
Feb. 25
ends; F
lod begi
period e
day (to
April
school);
period b

Thursday

(Continued From Page One)

the last few years.

Adelphi's Community Band, on the grounds three days, will again perform Saturday with concerts scheduled at 1:30 and 5 at the grandstand and at 7 at the grandstand.

Also on the program Saturday afternoon are the final horse races with Pace for overnight non-winners of $1,000, Trot for overnight non-winners of $2,500 in 1964 and Pace for overnight non-winners of $2,500 in 1964.

4-H awards will be given at 7 p.m. at the Junior Fair building and the Junior Fair Dance will be held at the Junior Fair building beginning at 9 p.m. Exhibits will be released at 8 p.m. Saturday, according to Ralph Ratcliff, fair board president.

Few of Thursday's sidelights: Betsy Hurr's calf, the first animal born during the fair at 12:11 p.m. Tuesday, was released after becoming ill.

Maynard Munzing, extension agent, discovered the meat show case's motor was running but wasn't keeping the winning cuts cool.

Both Catholic and Protestant editions of the Book of John were being given persons stopping by the Child Evangelism tent on the circle. The tent's theme is "Christmas in August."

Tent City was dusty as usual but several families had taken up residence in a new grassy camping area, north of the grandstand.

A new water fountain was in operation in the Junior Fair building replacing one damaged during the winter.

Several bags got loose but were quickly rounded up.

Pioneer Booth sales personnel said they couldn't keep fudge in supply.

Sheriff Fred Heinzelman was observed shortly before 8 p.m. picking up dropped papers and cups between the sheriff's tent and the grounds first aid station with the use of a pointed stick.

Mrs. Mary Reynolds, 175 Cedarwood Dr., reported the theft of the carburetor off her car while it was parked in the parking lot between 8 p.m. and 11. The fuel line had been cut to facilitate its removal.

Moderate damage was caused to the suite of Mrs. Nola Davis, 47, Route 7, when a truck belonging to Edward Iner, 66, Grove City, drifted backward into it.

Mr. Logan Livestock 4-H Club reported $12 paid admissions to the Jerry Raser Dance-O-Rama, held at the grandstand following the 4-H Style Show.

CHIC/ men we
er the k
in a fire
off track
firehous
Severa
shouting
the Wes
day nig
rock-thr
that the
the ladd
when a
knocked
A spol
onstratic
gress of further
held at
Fire C
Quinn s
tillerma
firehous
until the
dent in pletes if
rality.
More
sent int
and Pul
bottles
cars anc
station.
Scores
crowd f
themsel
Police, v
manages crowd a
on char
dict.
One pe
injuries
flying o
a hospit
torist su
a rock
window
Police
Road for
down in
ken by r
from the
was a pe
was ow
The e
after th
Frank
fire ma
ladder
respons
false at

DEPT

Clipped By:

mathew5554
Wed, Mar 20, 2019