Rhodes Here Tuesday for GOP Picnic

Ross County Republicans get the ball rolling for gubernatorial candidate James A. Rhodes Tuesday evening at Meaco Park.

Executive Committee Chairman Donald O. Evans reported Mr. Rhodes will be the speaker for the annual GOP picnic sponsored by the Ross County GOP Women's organization and the county executive committee.

The picnic will begin at 6 p. m. with a dinner. Ice cream, cake and beverage will be provided by the committee but, according to Mrs. Maude M. Doyle, women's organization president, the night's slogan is "Come with well-filled baskets and hefty appetites."

Band on Program

Entertainment includes the Adelphi band with an evening's entertainment of old-fashioned band music. The group is observing the 75th anniversary of its founding this year.

According to Mr. Evans, "Mr. Rhodes's appearance here will give Ross Countians first-hand information on his platform for new leadership for Ohio."

Mr. Evans says Mr. Rhodes fired the opening shot of his campaign by proposing creation of a "New Jobs & Industrial Development Authority." It is anticipated he will elaborate on this and at the same time leave no doubt to Ross Countians that the campaign is under way.
