

AYS THE LAST BATCH OF EXPENSE ACCOUNTS IS FILED

Although the time limit for the filing of the expense accounts by the various candidates in the primaries of August 8th expired Friday at midnight, on Saturday, there were still some accounts which had not yet been received at the office of the Board of Elections. These will be reported to the attorney-general and action will be taken to have them brought in as soon as possible.

Accounts continued to come in late Friday and early Saturday. Those which were filed since Friday afternoon are as follows—Wellington Starr, Republican candidate for nomination as county commissioner, $20.00; Schuyler Slager, Democratic candidate for representative, $18.00; C. H. Free, Democratic candidate for county commissioner, $23.81; James A. Cahill, Democratic candidate for the probate judge, $15.15; Elmon R. Terry, Democratic candidate for county auditor, $88.28; R. B. Marzluff, Democratic candidate for nomination as county commissioner, $13.00; and Samuel Taggart, candidate for nomination as county recorder, $21.00.

The following candidates for nomination as County Central Committee-men filed accounts showing that they had neither receipts nor expenses: T. B. Lyons, Charles McGregor, Pinkney Brewer, T. F.
