Preceding the awarding of trophies was a bang-up parade of livestock and machinery, led off by the Adolph band under the direction of Robert Shaw. Following the musicians was a six-wheeled team driven by Kurt Pyle, after which came the mules, ponies, colts and donkeys.

One of the features was an old-fashioned hockbeard drawn by a spotted pony with a tiny colt by her side. "On" and "ah" hummed up as the mammoth Holstein bull, weighing 2,800 pounds, lumbered by. The prize winning 4-H sheep rode on a wagon with their owners. Appearing for a second evening was the Ross County Rural Youth square dance float and the Buttercup 4-H Girls.

Machinery in Parade

The long line of animals was followed by an even longer line of machinery, estimated to be one-half mile in length. Announcing the parade was Dr. J. R. Hay.

During the free entertainment hour, the Nippon Grange sponsored music by Allen Pulver, Bill Alexander and Fred Husted. Dressed in long gingham dresses reminiscent of the days of yore, 24 youngsters from the Federal Reservation under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Walker, presented mature quadrille dances. Their appearance was under the auspices of Study Group 3-A of the Ross County Farm Bureau.

Bill Briggs of the Concord Grange played a saxophone solo, "Dark Eyes," after which Billy and Jane Landrum gave a tap dance routine to the tune of "The Bowers." This act was sponsored by the Chillicothe Grange. Joe Sidney, head circus clown for Retroff attractions, caused many a giggle with his fancy bike riding and Walt and Irma typified speed on wheels with their breath-taking rickshate exhibition.
