

Gazette-Hathaway Photoengraving

Women who served in the outdoor kitchen and dining room, Thursday at the Hopetown fish fry in Mason's grove, are shown in the center picture: (left to right, first row): Miss Estelle Senff, Miss Mae Senff, Miss Virginia Dearth, Mrs. Blanche Senff, Mrs. John Dearth, Miss Thelma Senff, Mrs. Gilbert Quick, Mrs. William Hinkle, Mrs. John Edler, Mrs. Marshall Stauffer. Back row: Mrs. T. J. Willis, Miss Pauline Clark, Mrs. Charles Hagans, Miss Eleanor Clark, Mrs. John Kuhn, Mrs. Leslie Dearth, Miss Mildred Dearth, Mrs. T. J. Smith, Miss Margaret Detillion, Miss Dorothy Davis, Miss Vida Detillion.

Pastor, speaker, and committee men are shown below: (left to right, first row): the Rev. J. T. Yocom, the Rev. Dr. J. Ira Jones (district superintendent and speaker), Messrs. George Dimity, John Dearth, C. H. Hagans, John Edler, Michael Senff, Wilbur Rueb. Back row: Messrs. Seney West, M. J. Stauffer, Leslie Dearth, Leslie Dimity, Walt Dimity, Oscar Drake, Robert Kellam.

but in a democracy, where every man and woman is king, integrity is imperative." Also on the program was the Adelphi band, and the Southern Melody quartet in the evening. Those who co-operated in putting on this annual picnic included: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hagans, Messrs. George Dimity, John Dearth, John Edler, Michael Senff, Wilbur Rueb, Seney West, M. J. Stauffer, Leslie Dearth, Leslie Dimity, Walt Dimity, Oscar Drake, Robert Kellam; Mmes.

yet it lacked the undergirding of adequate moral conviction in the hearts of the people, and so it failed. Dictatorships can flourish independent of moral foundations;

---

Store Hours 9:00 to 5:30; Saturdays 9:00 to 9:00

M. Schachne & Sons

Paint and Main Streets

Tomorrow, Saturday

Another Sensational
Event Follows Last
Wednesday's Tremendous Dollar Day Sale!

All Small Lots

D . . . F

Clipped By:

mathew5554
Tue, Mar 19, 2019