Hear ye, Hear ye, Ceremony starts. Men of Ohio, quit at trio, while color guard marches forward. We're done. Ceremony continues free to go. We were seated on one side and the Zane Trace band on the other side. We played the march for the color guard because Zane Trace band didn't have one. The program lists the Zane Trace band but we were the ones playing for an hour before it started. Kind of a rookie deal - hardly a mention in the program.
