

Fair Attendance Exceeds 24,000

'Babies' Steal Show

Ross county's display of productivity—the second annual county fair—came to a close Friday night, one of its bumper crops, the Leggett babies, stealing the show on the final Chillicothe Day program.

A record attendance of 24,178 for the four-day fair was reported by Treasurer O. D. Grimes and President Charles Betsch pointed out that figures from Junior Fair Day and admission

OF THE 5,000 PERSONS at whose birth Dr. C. D. Leggett was the attending physician, 1,123 men, women and children marched in the parade in his honor Friday after noon at the Ross County Fair. The procession, led by the Adelpi band, is pictured coming down the race track and heading for the bandstand, where the awards were presented.
