speaker. William C. Ludwig will act as emcee, and the Rev. Henry Cassler will give the invocation and prayer.

The Gold Star mothers will receive a yellow rose corsage and a plaque made by the VA hospital patients. Included on the program will be Company L of the National Guard, the recruiting officers, the VFW, the American Legion posts, the Disabled American Veterans and the Nelsonville Drum and Bugle Corps.

Last performance of the sesqui pageant, "Heart of Ohio," will follow the memorial service. Featuring well-known scenes and famous Ross Countians, such as William Renick, Duncan McArthur, Thomas Worthington, Edward Tiffin and Arthur St. Clair, the colorful pageant will be concluded by a fireworks display.

This afternoon's activity was to center around the bandstand with the CHS band and Adelphi bands presenting concerts.

Too Hot in Daytime.

"Attendance is running about the same as last year," fair manager Charles Betsch stated. "The evening crowds are considerably larger, but the afternoons have just been too hot for the spectators."

Chloride has been sprayed to cut down the dust.

Mr. Betsch estimated the livestock entries have topped previous records, especially in the sheep division.
