Stoutsville Correspondent Begins In E-G

Joyce Miller

STOUTSVILLE—Hello, my name is Joyce Miller and I will be writing your news column for the Stoutsville area. Anyone having any news of meetings, family gatherings, or any news that would be of interest to our community, please give a call at 969-2417.

DEEPEST SYMPATHY

I hate to start out on a sad note, but Stoutsville had another double tragedy strike last Thursday morning. An accident at the local grain elevator claimed the lives of two men working on the ditch. One of the men was a local resident and the other man was from the Commercial Point area.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to both families. Just a little over a month ago, two of our teenagers, both 1986 graduates of Amanda Clearcreek High School, were killed in a tragic accident.

At this time we would like to send our deepest sympathy and also our prayers out to the families of all four of these people. I'm certain the people of the community join me in this. A big "Thanks" to all Rescue and Emergency Squad members who worked so hard. Also, the LifeFlight from Grant Hospital was called in. They had to return empty. This is such a shock and a great loss to the whole area.

BACK TO SCHOOL

School started this week so, please, let's drive very carefully so we don't hurt any of our little people. Drive as though all these children were your own. The kids go back to school all excited and have lots to talk about with their friends. So we must be watching for them at all times. Be extra careful and watch out for those big yellow buses. Thanks!

LABOR DAY

Coming up this Labor Day weekend, the Clearcreek Township Fire Department and the Emergency Squad are sponsoring a big four-day celebration again. Friday, starting at 4 p.m., the K.P. will be serving fish dinners. Mr. and Miss Firefighter will be at 7 p.m., card games at 8 p.m. and square dancing until 11 p.m.

On Saturday, games and contests will be held all day long. Fish dinners will be served at noon. The Miss Firefighter contest will begin at 5 p.m. following the parade. Square dancing is scheduled from 7 p.m. until 11 p.m. with the Country Review Band. At 8:30 p.m. Saturday, the winning cake auction will be held.

GOSPEL MUSIC

Sunday will be a day of gospel music, starting with open church service at 11 a.m. The ladies will be serving a roast beef dinner in the firehouse kitchen at noon. All afternoon there will be different groups singing gospel music. The Outstanding Citizen Award will be presented in the firehouse at 2 p.m. with gospel music until 8 p.m. There will be no square dance Sunday night. You'll have to wait until Monday to dance again.

GRAND PARADE

Monday, 10 a.m., the day will begin with the Grand Parade. There will be ball games, pet parades, marching groups, presenting of awards and winning floats. The ladies will be serving a B.B.Q. chicken dinner at noon. The Adelpi Band will present their concert from noon until 1 p.m. The rest of the afternoon will be filled with entertainment of some kind for all ages. Ending up the festivities will again be round and square dancing for everyone to enjoy.

Come out and give your support to our Fire Department and Emergency Squad.

Don't forget to send me your news or give me a call.
