lice Chief George Rice, the Motor Cycle Corps, Parade Marshal Ferguson and the Color Guard of American Legion Post 62. These units were followed by the mayor and other city officials.

Bands included the Adelphi Community Band, Frankfort High School Band, Chillicothe High School Band and the Yellowbud Community Band.

Many Queens

A galaxy of queens lent their beauty to the parade. In addition to the Ross County Fair Queen, queens of the various city and county high schools, there were the Miss Pike County, Miss Ross County, and the Queens of the Furrow of Ross, Pike and Scioto Counties.

A two-hour talent show held the interest of the crowd at the reviewing stand at Paint and Water Streets while six square dance groups supplied exhibitions of western and country style dancing at other points along the street.

The square dancing was by the Elks Square Dancing Club, the Wagon Wheelers, Buckeye Twisters, the Belles and Beaus, Harry Riddle's Double "R" Ranch of Adelphi and Everett Whaley's Mellow Larks.

M. L. Roberts was general chairman of a "Holiday on Water Street." Parade chairman was Forrest Drummond; Mrs. Earlene Yarrington Martin and Forrest Harper, entertainment committee; Dan DeLong, bike races; Mrs. Lois L. Murry, roller skating; Mr. DeLong and Don Ringwald, sound and lighting; Charles Stewart and Herbert H. Marsh, ways and means committee; Paul and William Nelson, prize committee; James Lantz and Mrs. Jane Bolter, attendance awards, and Richard Bethel, concessions.
