Due to change of chair-people our performance was moved from Monday to Sunday. Some band members arrived just before we started - John Mathew, Jeff Mathew and Bill Miller. Again we had to wait on all the little kids. And we lost part of our audience. A new one for me - 3 little girls had kittens on a string and were jerking them around. One observation - the trumpet section seems to be weak - especially when Jeff moves to baritone or trombone. Pretty good band turnout and there was plenty of fish.
