

Installation of Officers
Features Meeting of CWF

Installation of officers highlighted the meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian church, Thursday night at the church.

The Rev. Harold Simones had charge of the installation and those installed were:

Mrs. Irving Reeves, president; Mrs. Clinton Cox, first vice president; Mrs. Harold Simones, second vice president; Mrs. Douglas Cook, secretary; Mrs. W. O. Francis, assistant secretary; Mrs. Albert Comstock, treasurer; Mrs. R. T. Deuwall, assistant treasurer; and Mrs. Clark Collins, program chairman.

The fellowship is a combination of two former women's organizations of the church, the Women's Missionary society and the Ladies auxiliary. History of the founding and aims of the auxiliary was given by Mrs. Cox, while Mrs. Reeves gave the history of the missionary society. Both groups pledged co-operation in the work of the fellowship.

Background of the formation of the Christian Women's Board of Missions was given by Mrs. William Huff. Mrs. Simones sang a solo, "Lo, Here Is Fellowship," with the Rev. Mr. Simones at the piano.

Mrs. Collins was leader of the worship service. A panel discussion on three phases of the work of the fellowship was presented by: Mrs. Cox, service; Mrs. Cook, study; and Mrs. Collins, devotional life. The missionary benediction was repeated in unison.

Informal entertainment followed and refreshments were served at small tables in the church dining room, with the officers as hostesses. Mrs. Bertine Eberts was a guest of the group.
