command of Col. Daniel F. Clancy, and the infantry unit paraded over the grounds and participated in a sham battle. There were 10 infantrymen and 10 cavalry on hand.

Before the mock skirmish, Dr. Simson made a talk entitled "The War Between the States."

The Sons of Union Veterans' ceremonies were climaxed by the firing of cannons. Dr. Simson and Dave Medert, president of the Chillicothe Civil War Roundtable, were in charge of the cannon firing. Mr. Medert owned one of the cannons and had transported it from Chillicothe for the event.

The Adelphi Band gave another concert in the evening, followed by members of the Clarksburg Grange who presented a play entitled "His First Date." The Grange members, which were winners in the district contest, will compete in the Ohio State Fair. They are Don Martin, Merton Sae McDonald, Mrs. Merton Garrison, Mrs. Paul Drummond, Mrs. Robert Peck and Grant McDonald.

As a climax to the program, Columbus Barbershop Quartettes gave concerts, and a group of 40 men representing the Organization for the Preservation of Barbershop Music also sang. The electric group of 30, called the "Singing Pots, a Buckeyes," were winners in an international contest a few years ago.

Mrs. Robert Zurnehly, a nurse on duty for the Field Day, treated seven people, mostly for blisters.

There were pony rides for children and a number of commercial exhibitors other than the fence building.

Winners in the children's contests during the afternoon were: Scavenger hunt, Gary Jordan, Ned Payne, John Stevenson and Ap-Bo Bookwalter; girls' balloon bursting, Windy Kay Brunett, Lea Brunett, second, and Cecily Bessinger; third, boys' balloon bursting, Marion Hurtl, first, Mike Funk, second, and Ronnie Cocheour; third, boys' three-legged race, Dennis and Merle Garrison, first, Ned Payne and John Stevenson, second, and Mike Funk and Ed Woolever, third; girls' three-legged race, Mildred Logan, Nelson and Donna Garrison, first, bitter in $16.80 and Windy Kay Brunett and Becky Garrison, second; boys' sack race, Dennis Garrison, first, Benny Jamison, second, and Charlie Monrone, third; girls' sack race, Debbie Johnson, first, Windy Kay Brunett, second, and Lea Brunett, third; boys' wheelbarrow race, Dennis and Merle Garrison, first, Benny Jamison and Tom Abbot, second, Charles Seeling and Steve McCallough, third; grassed pole, Ed Hydell, and John Stevenson.
