

Record Crowd Due At GOP Fish Fry

"Ticket sales have been tremendous for the annual Republican Fish Fry to be held Saturday at the Fairfield County Fairgrounds," Mrs. Margaret Smith reported.

"We are expecting a record crowd with a well-known speaker like George Voinovich, candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Ohio," Mrs. Smith said.

In addition, other special guests will include George C. Rogers, candidate for state treasurer; Bus Lukens, candidate for state auditor; Sen.

Sam Speck; and local candidates.

The fish fry, to be catered by Triangle Lake, will be served from 5 to 7 p.m., followed by entertainment and program at 8 p.m. The fish fry is sponsored by the Fairfield County Republican Executive Committee, Jay Dupler, chairman.

Lancaster businessman Len Hajost will serve as master of ceremonies and the Adelphi Community Band will provide music. Tickets, both adult and children, are available from most active local Republicans.
