Rebecca Corbin, 14, cleans the back of her lamb stall to make room for the two market lambs she is showing at the Ross County Fair, which gears up this weekend and officially opens Monday. Corbin is a member of the Golden Fleece 4-H club. For a complete look ahead to the fair, see the special section that starts on Page 1C.

Entertainment to be lively

Staff and wire reports

The fruit of all the preparation and planning Ross County Fair officials have been doing for the 1995 fair can be seen today.

The 51st Ross County Fair will be launched at 12:30 p.m. today with an Adelphi Band concert at the grandstand, which will be followed at 1 p.m. with harness racing.

Events for the fair range from gospel to bluegrass music concerts and a demolition derby to a beauty pageant.

Highlights this year include a concert by country music singer Charlie Daniels and Kelly Garver at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the grandstand.

Another well-known country music singer, Tracy Byrd will perform 8 p.m. Thursday in a concert, which includes local group Michael Boyle and the Broken Bow Band, at the grandstand.

Also, 19 young women and five young men will compete for the titles of 1995 Ross County Fair Queen and King. That contest will begin 8 p.m. Sunday at the grandstand.

Other competitions including, livestock, sewing, art, cooking and will take place at the Ross County Fairgrounds throughout the fair, which ends Saturday, Aug. 12.

Other entertainment includes a magic show, a clown
