

4,500 Jam Field Day

Nickel Gain At Gate, but Profit's Up

CLARKSBURG — Approximately 4,500 persons were on hand Thursday for the Chillicothe Memorial Church's 19th annual Field Day.

Opening at 10 a.m. with a tractor pulling contest, the program included a concert by the Adams High School band and a special evening stage show featuring Bonnie Lane, Gabe and Rex, several numbers by Sandy Keates and the Ranch Hands in charge of Harold Alexander.

The Adolph band which also dates back 30 years was directed by R. R. Shaw with James Steeds directing the Adams High School band.

The Rev. Carroll Chesner, church pastor, was master of ceremonies and James Mason as chairman. George Shuster served as vice chairman.

In addition to the concerts and stage show, there were various contests for youngsters and adults alike. Winners received trophies donated by businessmen.

The crowd also enjoyed refreshments throughout the day. Many were on hand for dinner. The crowd estimated at about 4,500 persons was the largest ever to have attended the event. Proceeds from the field day are used for the maintenance fund and the fund for the purchase of a new kitchen.

Proceeds from the field day are used for the maintenance fund and the fund for the purchase of a new kitchen.

Tractor Pull Contest — 8,000 pound class — Ben Farris, Clinton, Mo. 1st; Larry Scholmer, Mount Sterling, second; Tom Thorne, Pataskala, third.

1,000 pounds — Larry Scholmer, Mount Sterling, first; Dale Pounce, Kingston, second; John McFarland, Atlanta, third; and John Barnea, Mount Sterling, fourth.

500 pound — Lynn Metzger, Williamsport, first; Bill Wheeler, Circleville, second; Tom Harneck, Chillicothe, third; and Steve Belling, Circleville, fourth.

Children's Games — Girls' three-legged race —

(Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 1)

COTTON CANDY TIME — Fanny Stanton, Route 1, left, and her cousin, Debbie Stanton, Chillicothe, take time out for treats while waiting for the candy toss to begin at Clark's field day Thursday.

(Gazette photo by Sam Hartock)

Greenfield Has Problems Over Paint Creek Sewage

Greenfield is headed for a "show-cause" hearing will, no doubt, plant for its sewage waste. The hearing is set for Sept. 14, 10 a.m. at the city's offices in Chillicothe.

The hearing is set for Sept. 14, 10 a.m. at the city's offices in Chillicothe.

Professional Unit Headed By Holmes

OU-C Funds For Borings Released

Man Dashes Into Landing Plane's Path

Boys Fund Is Closed

Speeding Car Hits Cab; 4 Dies in Flames

Buried Freed 15 Miles

Clipped By:

mathew5554
Wed, Mar 20, 2019