The week-long Ross County Fair begins Sunday with a country mix of livestock judging, music and demonstrations.

That means everything from a lip sync contest Tuesday night, to pig races Friday and Saturday to horseshoe competitions Wednesday through Saturday. Sunday admission is free.

Check our datebook for complete listings. Meanwhile, here are a few music highlights from the fair:

- Monday and Tuesday at 1 p.m. — Adelphi Band at Grandstand
 - Wednesday at 8 p.m.— Lee Greenwood and Suzy Bogguss at grandstand
 - Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. — Modern Day Outlaws at bandstand
 - Thursday, Aug. 13 at 8 p.m. — Tracy Lawrence and Highway 101 at grandstand
 - Thursday, Aug. 13 at 8:30 p.m. — Glass Onion at bandstand
 - Friday, Aug. 14 at 8:30 p.m. — Cactus at bandstand
 - Saturday, Aug. 15 at 8:30 p.m. — River Valley Boys
- The Junior Fair dance is Aug. 15, 9 to midnight at the Junior Fair Building at the Ross County Fairgrounds. Admission is $3 and $5 for couples.
