

Aug. 7 of 1950

Vinton Parade Enlivened by Dozen Bands

Sixty-four units, including the Chillicothe and Mt. Logan Riding clubs and the Adelphi band, participated in the parade Saturday which climaxed the Vinton county centennial celebration at McArthur.

Also taking part in the mile-long display were antique autos—Hupp and Roils Royce—entered by respective owners, Earl Barnhart and Dr. M. D. Scholl.

12 Bands Play

Thousands lined the streets of the Vinton county seat to witness the parade, which was enlivened by music of 12 bands, McArthur, Albany, Hamden, Jackson, Wellston, Zaleski, The Plains, Chancey-Dover and Haydensville school bands and Union Furnace, Wilkesville and Adelphi community bands.

Robert Barnhart of this city was a judge of the parade, along with O. W. Williams and Jay Jones.

Prize winners were:

Agriculture — Wilkesville Pomona grange; MacArthur Future Home Makers; New Plymouth grange; Civic—McArthur Civic club (Review of Brides 1850-1950); McArthur Business and Professional Women's float; McArthur Christian church float; Garden club float;

High schools—McArthur high school float; Zaleski high school float; Vinton high school float; Allensville high school float; elementary—Wilkesville; McArthur; Church — McArthur Christian church.

British Freighter

ben plo late S cov wen eng plo lon T we Th me Th ifie I Q. wa we E ser the the cor lan dra H tha ed the H tha S wa can tur " lev into T ing ple tre I gas T five bor bor 20 A tra

Clipped By:

mathew5554
Wed, Mar 20, 2019